Second Street Promenade Second Street Promenade is a prominent shopping district in Santa Monica, California, along the beach. Second Street Promenade is bounded by Wilshire Boulevard, Ocean Park Avenue, Montana Avenue, and the Santa Monica Pier. The district is generally considered to extend south from Wilshire Boulevard. It is home to many retail stores including Anthropologie, Urban Outfitters, American Apparel, Ralph Lauren, Miu Miu, Diesel, Forever 21, Lancel, Anytime Fitness, Hayneedle, UGG, Anthro, Bradford Exchange, F21, Express, Gap, H&M, Kate Spade, Michael Kors, Urban Outfitters, Bebe, & Skinny Brain Water. The retail and dining area is home to "The Promenade." There is also a line of stores to the south of the pedestrian walkway that line 3rd Street Promenade. This area is referred to as 3rd Street Promenade, and includes stores such as Urban Outfitters, Bebe, Target, and TJ Maxx. Characteristics The Promenade was first developed in the 1970s by the City of Santa Monica and is famous for its white sand beach and views of the Pacific Ocean. It is a popular mall and is home to many restaurants, hotels, and retail. Additionally, the promenade is home to many activities such as the Santa Monica Pier Wheel, a Ferris wheel with eight passenger-carrying vehicles that is available on the beach and in the mall during the summer months. In 2010, Sunset Magazine named the Santa Monica Promenade as the number one vacation spot in America. History Development The Promenade was originally developed during the 1970s and '80s. Its current location between 2nd and 3rd Streets Promenade was the original vacant lot, as the San Vicente Boulevard was marked as the Pacific Coast Highway at the time. On February 3, 1973, The
